Je retiens de cette leçon :

- ❖ Les structures grammaticales : le singulier et le pluriel, les structures « do you like »..., les structures « can I have... »
- ❖ Le vocabulaire de la nourriture.

On met "a" ou "an" devant un nom lorsqu'il est au singulier.(an devant les noms commençant par une voyelle).

Au pluriel, on ne met pas d'article, mais on met un « s » ou « es » à la fin du nom.

Ex : a potato – two potatoes : potatoes

Pour demander à quelqu'un s'il aime quelque chose, on utilise :

- Do you like.... ?

Pour répondre, on utilise,

- Des short answers : Yes I do / No, I don't

- Ou une phrase complète : I don't like it / I like it.

I hate... / I prefer
